THE HITCHHIKER'S GUIDE TO FAMILY
by Rachel O'Connor, Westtown, New York

"Linda, look at the map!" My father slammed on the brakes, glaring at my mom. He didn't believe in excessive planning, and so each summer we embarked on a spontaneous family road trip that didn't always go smoothly. There were lots of late-night panics to find hotels, stops to ask for directions, and elevated tempers. One night, we picked up a hitchhiker somewhere in Kentucky. As we blasted the radio and my dad bought us all ice cream, the hitchhiker told me he'd give his life to have what I had.

On this Father's Day, we remember our Dads. There are stories of really good dads, kind of ok dads and dads who were not there. Father's Day is a reminder to both Dads and children that there is still time for growth in relationship. Father's Day means memories for those of us whose fathers have passed—and our faith reminds us that even when our Dads have died, we can still work on our relationship through prayer, gratitude, and forgiveness.

We come before the Lord today and ask blessing and give thanks. Lord of light touch the precious relationship between father and child.

Blessings to our fathers!
Fr. Joe

Food Shelf Volunteers Needed

As the numbers of people needing to use the Food Shelf has risen, the number of people willing and available to assist has dropped. Please consider signing up to assist at the Food Shelf! Sign up sheets are located in the lobbies. We ask that volunteers under 16 are accompanied by a parent or guardian. Questions—Jo Hennen 320-250-0456
